Buyer and Customer Right of Entry

The Seller shall, at any reasonable time, allow entry to Seller's premises to Buyer's personnel, Buyer's customer personnel, and regulatory agency personnel for the express purpose of verifying that Seller's premises and product contracted for conforms to specified requirements. Such verification shall not be used by the Seller as evidence of effective control of quality by the Seller. Verification by the Buyer or Buyer's customer shall not absolve the Seller of the responsibility to provide acceptable product, nor shall it preclude subsequent rejection by the Buyer.
